

Baulines Craft Guild presents
Workshops in Studio Craft 2010

A workshop series in design and fabrication techniques for metal arts, paper structures, fiber, clay, and wood, taught by California's leading fine craft artists.

Alex Friedman

5 Heads: Portraits in Tapestry is fantastic and fun!

Alex Friedman introduces you to the fine art of tapestry weaving through the creation of small portraits: pets, friends, family, yourself, imaginary pals. On simple looms, Alex will guide you through an exploration of imagery in yarn, depicting faces. You can create any character that you can imagine, with the simple, elegant means of tapestry weaving.

Location: Alex Friedman's studio, ICB

480 Gate 5 Road Sausalito

Date: September 18-19, Sat.-Sun 10AM-4 PM

Cost: $250. BCG members $200

Materials included, bring your own table or frame loom. Small looms for sale based on Archie Brennan's copper pipe loom design. This workshop is suitable for weavers of intermediate experience. Limit of 6 participants.

Griffe Griffiths

Explore Chasing and Repousse with Griffe Griffiths, Master metal artist. Griffe inspires excitement about his medium, copper and bronze, and the art of chasing and repousee`.

Icythus Salmon by Griffe Griffiths

This ancient technique allows creation of drawings, symbols, narrative, and 2D-3D objects in metal that can then be used for embellishment of other mediums, jewelry, furniture fittings, and anything that you can imagine. Beginners and advanced students alike will enjoy this class, and take home intriguing results from the weekend workshop.

Materials fee paid to the instructor. You will alter simple hardware tools to fit the creative purpose.

Location: Art Works Down Town 1337 4th Street, San Rafael, CA 94901

Date: June 26-27, Saturday and Sunday 10 AM-4 PM

Cost: $275 for 2 day workshop, materials fee of $50 paid to instructor. BCG members $225 + materials fee. Limit of 8 participants. Beginners and intermediate levels welcome.

Susan Hersey

Creating Art with Paper Pulp can be amazing, fun, and unusual.

Susan Hersey, Master sculptor and 2d artist will guide you in an exploration of creating a structure of reeds, bamboo, or twigs covered with gauze onto which you will spray or pour layers of colored paper pulp. When dry, the pulp shrinks to a rigid sculptural form. You may embellish it with fibers, bits of colored fabric, other papers, paint, or other possibilities. Susan's studio, where the workshop will take place, is an unusual and beautiful environment in the countryside near Petaluma. Her well equipped studio has Hollander beater, tables, and plenty of outside workspace to enjoy your day creating with pulp. Recommended for all levels and interests. Limit of 8 people. Materials fee paid to instructor. Wear old clothes, so you can enjoy getting wet. All levels welcome.

Location: Studio Hersey 1285 San Antonio Road
Petaluma, CA 94952

Triangular Sconce by
Susan Hersey

Date: July 17-18, Saturday and Sunday 10AM-4 PM

Cost: $200 with a materials fee of $15 paid to instructor.

You may bring embellishments to use.

BCG members receive class at a discounted price of $150 plus materials fee.

Limit of 8 participants. Bring lunch; Susan has a lovely garden to relax and share your experience of the day.

Baulines Craft Guild is rich in tradition and foremost in contemporary studio practice.

BCG offers training and education in wood furniture design and fabrication, fiber arts, ceramic sculpture and functional arts, metal arts and glass along with exposure to the business of art. Exhibition programs feature the finest in contemporary one-of-a-kind objects in fiber, wood, clay, glass and metal.

Baulines Craft Guild offers apprenticeships with Master Artist members. Study in a fully equipped Master Artist's studio, and learn the practical and business skills you need to advance in your career. Apprenticeships are available full and part time. Tuition for full time (40 Hours per week) is $900 per month; part time (20 hours per week) $450. Potential apprentices are asked to submit a portfolio for review prior to being accepted. Contact Baulines Craft Guild director, Janet Moore, at 415-458-3535 to discuss our apprenticeships in wood furniture, metal arts, tapestry, ceramics, and other forms of fine craft.

Junior Apprenticeships are available for high school juniors and seniors in Master artists' studios. The Junior Apprenticeship is 15 day long visits in the workshop of a professional artist. Learn exciting skills, and advance your chances of scholarships to art schools and professional programs. Small stipends for youths are available.

Small Objects in Metal Infused Cast Concrete

is a unique exploration of the properties and possibilities of working with concrete. You will learn fundamentals of metal and concrete combinations, casting and finishing techniques and become familiar with the tools of the trade. Two class sessions, on two consecutive weekends, will give you ample opportunity to create a box, a vase, or an oil lamp. Processes involve mold preparation, casting, scraping, grinding, carving and embellishing with trinkets or found objects. There are more creative possibilities than you can imagine! Classes are all day from 10 AM-5 PM with a short lunch break. Class is limited to 10 people. Materials fee to instructor. Wear old clothes that you will ruin.

Date: 1st Session July 10, Saturday and July 17, Saturday

2nd Session July 11, Sunday and July 18th, Sunday

Materials fee of $25 to instructor. Bring found objects. Materials will be enough to create more than one object. All levels welcome.

Barbara Shapiro

Plaited Paper Gift Baskets and Plaited Cane Baskets

Barbara Shapiro shares her techniques of plaiting with paper and cane to create unique baskets that can form the structure for collage or embellishment with stitching, painting, paper skins, or other surface designs techniques with your favorite materials. The resulting small works can be used as a holiday gift, a simple vase, or a container for precious objects. Barbara combines her rich knowledge of historical and ethnic textiles with broad technical experience. She is a much sought after teacher in the Bay Area and nationally. This full day workshop will explore both paper and cane plaiting to create unique personal works. Limit of 10 students of all levels of ability. Materials fee to instructor of $20.

Location: ArtWorks Down Town 1337 4th Street, San Rafael

Dates: August 7, Saturday 10AM-4 PM

Cost: $150 + $20 materials fee. BCG Members $125 +$20

Carol Wedemeyer Combining Clay with Found Objects: the Mini-Heads Project

This is a fast moving event that will keep your attention. Only a few tools are needed and it is fun and funny; Carol Wedemeyer is a ceramic sculptor with a wicked sense of humor and an amazing vision. Carol will demonstrate and you will use clay to form basic shapes that make up eyes, nose and mouth. You will be amazed at how fast figurative realism happens! During 2 subsequent sessions, you will glaze or burnish your creation and combine with found objects for personal poetic results. Firing will take place in between sessions. Carol will share information on great artists who have used figurative abstraction in their work. Three session workshop is suitable for all levels. Materials fee to the instructor will cover clay, glazes, paint, and firing fee. First session is 5 hours; second and third sessions are two hours each.

Jonah by Carol Wedemeyer

Location: Art Workout Room, Art Works Downtown, 1337 4th Street, San Rafael
Dates: July 24, July 31: Saturdays, and August 8, Sunday. First Session is 5 hours, following sessions are two hours. 10 AM-4 PM, and 10 AM-12 PM.
Cost: $200 plus $20 materials fee to instructor. BCG members may take this workshop for $150 plus $20 materials fee. Limit of 8 students. This workshop is suitable for all levels.

Register for your workshop by phone, post, or email. You may send a check or use your credit card to pay by phone. Workshops will be cancelled if minimums are not met by ten days prior to workshop dates. If your workshop has been cancelled, your check will be returned. Of course, if you have a friend to attend with, you can share the fun, and help the workshop fill!

Prior to the workshop, you will receive a materials or tools list, or any special instructions you will need. Parking in San Rafael is in City parking garages, within a short 1-2 block walk of Art Works Downtown. Parking fees are modest; about $1.00 per hour.

To register, call Baulines Craft Guild office, return form with your check or credit card number by post, or send an email to director@baulinescraftguild.org.
